

“The Four Things That Matter Most”

a special evening event for the community and people who have elderly family members

Sponsored in partnership by

CENTRACARE Health

and

The CentraCare Health Foundation Kevin J. Hughes
Fund for Law and Medical Ethics

Ira Byock, MD

Tues., Oct. 10 • 7 - 8:30 p.m.

Ira Byock, MD

Palliative care physician, author and educator

Paramount Center for the Arts
913 West St. Germain Street
St. Cloud, MN 56301

PARAMOUNT
CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Admission is free with a reserved complimentary ticket.

To reserve your ticket, register at centracare.com/events or call the Paramount Box Office at 320-259-5463.

Ira Byock, MD, FAAHPM,

is a leading palliative care physician, author, and public advocate for improving care through the end of life.

He is Founder and Chief Medical Officer of the Institute for Human Caring of Providence Health and Services and is Professor Emeritus of Medicine and Community & Family Medicine (Active) at the Geisel School of Medicine, Dartmouth. He is an author of numerous articles on ethics and practice of care and books including Dying Well, The Four Things That Matter Most and The Best Care Possible.

End of Life Series sponsored by: CentraCare Health, CentraCare Health Ethics Committee, CentraCare Health Education & Professional Development Department and the Kevin J. Hughes Fund for Law and Medical Ethics